NMPA’s mission is to protect and advance NMPA Publisher Members’ interests, including in matters relating to the protection of their music copyrights. Through our monitoring program, we have identified infringing copies of NMPA Publisher Members’ copyrighted songs on Twitter, which can be found at the URLs identified below the signature block of this message. We include in this notification a list of representative examples of infringing material that are to be removed or access to which are to be disabled, along with identification of the copyrighted works infringed and the relevant NMPA Publisher Members that own and/or exclusively control an exclusive right in such works, and information reasonably sufficient to permit Twitter to locate the infringing material. Nothing in this notice is intended or shall be construed to constitute an express or implied waiver of any of NMPA’s or NMPA Publisher Members’ rights or remedies, including any rights or remedies in respect of any infringement not expressly stated, whether current or in the future, all of which are expressly reserved. The undersigned has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law. This notification, including all accompanying information, constitutes a legally compliant takedown notice pursuant to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. The information in this notification is accurate, and, under penalty of perjury, the undersigned is authorized to act on behalf of the owner or exclusive licensee of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed. If there are any questions, please contact us at dmca-notice@nmpa.org or via phone at 202-383-2595. Sincerely, /s/ Kerry M.
